The World Economic Forum is an independent international organization committed to improving the state of the world by engaging leaders in partnerships to shape global, regional and industry agendas. Incorporated as a foundation in 1971, and based in Geneva, Switzerland, the World Economic Forum is impartial and not-for-profit; it is tied to no political, partisan or national interests.

Starting this year, the World Economic Forum is selecting 30 (thirty) exceptionally talented individuals to join its organization on a three-year Global Leadership Programme. Designated as Global Leadership Fellows, these individuals will be fully integrated in the work programme of the World Economic Forum and will benefit from an intensive work and learning experience intended to develop and train future leaders of global enterprises and international organizations. The Global Leadership Fellows will receive a salary and benefits commensurate with their qualifications and responsibilities, and in line with the World Economic Forum’s compensation policies.

The Global Leadership Programme is designed by the World Economic Forum in collaboration with its worldwide network of distinguished experts and leaders. Upon successful completion of the Programme, Global Leadership Fellows will receive a Master’s in Global Leadership and will be provided assistance in identifying placement opportunities at, but not limited to, the World Economic Forum and its member companies.

Requirements
• Demonstrated leadership capabilities and/or excellence in a particular field or discipline;
• Proven interest in global affairs;
• A broad intellectual background with a Master’s degree (or equivalent) in business administration, economics, public policy, public administration or development-related studies;
• 3 to 5 years’ work experience;
• Excellent command of written and spoken English and proficiency in a second language;
• Commitment to the mission of the World Economic Forum.

Please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, three references and an 800-word personal essay on what you would like to achieve in your life to leadershipfellows@weforum.org. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.