

CEM N. CESMIG

Chief Executive Officer of Newtonmore Advisors Limited

Founded Newtonmore Advisors Limited and Gordion Investments Limited (investment company) in 1995. As a private investor, he made investments in the UK and France (Karrimore, Antics, Cybersports, Seatwave, Vogica, Proclif), as well as in Turkey (Innova, Kalkan S.A., and Kundu S.A.). To date the group has invested in 13 European Private opportunities.

Prior to starting his own private investment activities, Cem Cesmig was a founding partner of Investcorp (1982-1994) where he was instrumental in building the corporate acquisition activities of the firm in the USA and later in Europe.

During his tenure at Investcorp he initiated, concluded and supervised numerous investments, including A&W, Tiffany and Co., Club Car, Peebles (in the US), Thecla, Chaumet, Breguet, Gucci, Computacenter, Thorn Lighting and Ebel (in Europe).

Prior to Investcorp Cem Cesmig pursued an international banking career with Bankers Trust Company (1972-1981) in New York, London and Bahrain; and became Middle East and Gulf Division Head in 1980.

Cem Cesmig graduated from Universite de Neuchatel, Switzerland (1970) with a License es Sciences Economiques. He also holds a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago (1972) and completed the Senior Management Programme of the Graduate School of Business Administration at Harvard University (1983).

Cem Cesmig is a Board Member of various European companies, and a member of the Global Advisory Board of the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

Cem Cesmig, born in 1944 in Ankara, has been married to Bettina (Joy) since 1969 and they reside in London, UK.